INFORMATION FOR CONTRIBUTORS

PROOFTEXTS follows generally the University of Chicago Press Manual of Style (12th revised edition) but issues its own style sheet outlining exceptions and providing guidelines for the transliteration of Hebrew and Yiddish.

Contributors are asked to submit four copies of their manuscript and are encouraged to consult the editors about the design of their proposed submission. Manuscripts should be double spaced and should carry notes at the end. Manuscript copies will not be returned.

Submissions from Israelis are invited in Hebrew. If a manuscript is accepted, PROOFTEXTS will take responsibility for having it translated. PROOFTEXTS publishes only original material. Publication of an article or portions thereof in Hebrew is permitted only after the appearance of the English version in PROOFTEXTS, and only with clear acknowledgment to prior publication in PROOFTEXTS.

Contributors will receive thirty-five gratis reprints.
